Search for something else? The name of AMatterofTime is named as such because the central concept revolves around the passage of time and how it affects us.

In interviews, Laufey has said that she was inspired by that anxiety and beauty in letting yourself be carried away by time instead of fighting against it. Singer-songwriter and multi-instrumentalist Laufey brings a jazz-influenced traditional pop style into the 21st century with soothing songs inspired by artists such as Ella Fitzgerald, Billie Holiday, Peggy Lee, Chet Baker, and George Gershwin. An unexpected nonconformist to the rules of contemporary pop, Laufey's third studio album AMatterofTime out Friday pulls inspiration from country and Icelandic folk music as well as classical and bossa nova sounds.
