Wherever life finds you we've got a place for you at AMBS

We're here to support you with a variety of distance learning options and a wide range of financial aid and scholarships. AMBS will become an Anabaptist learning community that makes theological education accessible to and welcoming of Christians of increasingly diverse traditions, ethnicities, and races to reflect more fully God's purposes of unity and justice. The AMBS Library was the first Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) certified theological library in North America.

Course information including advanced reading assignments are posted on Moodle, the online course management system by the dates indicated in the Academic Calendar. Choose a degree or program at AMBS and you'll engage deeply in the study of theology alongside a supportive community of scholars. AMBS's Practical Leadership Training modules are designed to help pastors, lay leaders, community leaders, and leaders of nonprofit organizations increase their capacity to provide effective Anabaptist leadership in a variety of settings. Our Teaching Faculty Our Teaching Faculty members are experts in their disciplines who teach from their real life experience.

They encourage students at AMBS to integrate their experience and knowledge into a wise and discerning expression of their vocation. Bible Drew J.

Strait PhD Associate Professor of New Testament and Public Faith Gilha Rooted in the Word Growing in Christ. AMBS is steeped in a centuries old Anabaptist peace tradition. At AMBS we engage peace building from biblical, theological, historical, ethical, ecclesiological, cultural, and pastoral perspectives.

See what courses can help ground you in peace theology as well as strengthen your practical peace building skills.
