Just I don t know whether I could or should write it without for ? Then what would be the difference? Apr 3 2021 Another two and two more mean the same thing and both are acceptable in this case

I prefer two more as it echoes the pattern of two guards in the first sentence It s perfectly possible to say for example that was at another time somewhere during some relatively non specific earlier age period whereas at another time means a specific time often not too far distant from whatever time it s being contrasted with.
