But as time goes on they become an extension of the family and a real lifeline given the chance. Having anau pairin my home has been absolutely vital to our family particularly because I have a child with severe Aug 19 2023 So we were thinking anau pairmight be the way to go next

The thing I m worried about is whether theau pairwill be passionate about caring for young children or simply interested in the study abroad experience

If you have experience with anau pair please explain what you liked disliked and any recommendations for the search process May 12 2020 I startedaupairing when I was 25 I had graduated and felt a little lost with life and needed to get out of my home country

Thats when I went to America to be anau pairand spent the last 2 years there with the same family. I finished about 3 months ago Jun 18 2023 r AuPairs is a forum and resource for people who are thinking of or are currentlyaupairing
