Curious I have heard many comments from girls that my brethren and I got younger faces for our actual age we can't really grow facial hair either lol

However I am unsure how I should take this comment

I understand that it is an observation but what is the underlying tone here? r babyfaceknees Baby FaceKnees The other day I found this article about a 51 year old hair dresser named Karen Simpson and she claims to have faces or baby faces in her knees kneecaps not only is she good looking for a 51 year old but her knees kneecaps are also good looking those kneecaps are quite an impressive package Feb 24 2019 So I'm nearly 23 years old and people still tell me I have a baby face

What does this mean? Does it mean I'm not masculine enough? Does it mean I'm just cute but not hot? I mean suppose I don't have the strongest jaw nor do I have great facial hair but some. Like I could grow a killer stache and chin strap

The reason it's on my mind is a new co worker one of the first In my experience people with baby face syndrome as you call it tend to age like a fine milk once they hit a certain age they look really young right up until they look really old Jun 21 2021 Though as someone else mentioned it does make me a target

You're young. You don't know anything. As for women some like it others don't. My advice for those that don't like their baby faces should grow facial hair

I do in the fall and winter and look like I different person. But I hate maintaining it. I think it makes me look The nice thing about having more of a baby face is in my experience that you age pretty gracefully and tend to get better looking as the years go by

Looking like a teen in your 20's sucks looking like You're in your early 20's in your 30's could be worse and looking early 30's in your 40's is kinda awesome Say hello to sagging jowls lol. Baby face makes you less sexually desirable now and people will perpetually assume you are inexperienced and innocent or that you are somehow super kind I get this all the time

Moreover as time goes by you will turn into a fugly and old looking baby that is balding. By the way I speak from experience Dec 10 2021 Men with baby faces of
