As winter approaches should I cut itback tojust above the ground as I do with my other perennial flowering plants? Jul 29 2024 I m a transporter for Avian Haven a bird rehab in Freedom Maine. I got a call yesterday about an injured Cooper s hawk and picked it up

It didn t look hopeful and I expected ittopass during the night. This morning it s standing up and took a defensive posture toward me

It probably won t be ableto comebackwith me today but if when it s readytobe released I ll pick it up again and Originally Posted by galaxyhi You know you re getting old when your knees snap crackle and pop before your Rice Krispies do
