Black is a color [2] that results from the absence or complete absorption of visible light.

It is an achromatic color without chroma like white and grey. [3] It is often used symbolically or figuratively to represent darkness. [4] Black and white have often been used to describe opposites such as good and evil, the Dark Ages versus the Age of Enlightenment, and night versus day.

Since the Based in San Diego BLAC serves communities across California and beyond, focusing on historically Black minority and underserved areas. BLAC is more than a program; it's a movement, a community and a revolution. Join BLAC to empower Black and minority communities through leadership, cultural pride and economic development in San Diego.
