Email address pr eatboneheads Category Others Not Listed Above Description To understand the story of Boneheads you need to know about the people behind it. They were not businessmen. They were a group of great restaurateurs from the U.S

and South Africa master chefs and people who just appreciated good food and the happiness that comes with it. So when you take out the business Feb 12 2009 We're replacing all the carpeting in our new to us home. The previous owners were smokers and the carpet is in bad shape anyway

To save a few bucks.
