TheBrokenDialect Impactful Speech trope as used in popular culture. Some characters don t speak like the average person. They may be trying to speak a The ElectiveBrokenLanguage trope as used in popular culture

Just like a character may choose not to speak or not to speak coherently they may also Engrish coming from the Japanese pronunciation of English can refer to anybroken mangledEnglishspeech from non native speakers including However due to language differences some Real Life immigrants may have some of these tendencies and some of the trope s characteristics derive from Chinese PidginEnglish

If a foreigner who can speak perfectEnglishdeliberately speaks like this for amusement this is ElectiveBrokenLanguage Straight Alice who can speak properEnglish speaks it in You No Take Candle fashion or with Yoda like grammar. Exaggerated Alice is an Elective Mute

Downplayed Alice speaks properEnglish but puts on a fake foreign accent

Justified BrokenEnglishis part of Alice s Fauxreigner disguise Thus anybody in the audience will recognize randomEnglishphrases or text as being English and might even recognize specific words but they probably won t know enough to recognize or care whether the phrasing actually makes any sense In some cases it is a form of Aliens SpeakingEnglish in which the creatures have their own language and speakEnglishas a very poorly learned secondary language.
