If you have a phone with web access enter m.facebook into your mobile web browser The Making of Nationalism in Europe If you look at the map of mid eighteenth century Europe you will find that there were no nation states as we know them today

What we know today as Germany Italy and Switzerland were divided into kingdoms duchies and cantons whose rulers had their autonomous territories New World in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries brought along a knowledge of the way things worked at home

Quite naturally they tended to put that knowledge to use and to model their own institutions after Our ongoing research considers a more comprehensive geographical area Scotland and chronological period seventeenth and eighteenth centuries

This paper presents some initial results on the design and construction techniques of eighteenth century Scottish timber roofs

From an extensive relational database of 1250 buildings a selection of 29 groups of buildings has been surveyed T H E H I S T O R Y O F A C A D E M I C P R O C E S S I O N A N D R E G A L I A The academic procession and the regalia worn by the faculty and officers of the University symbolically represent the continuing link between the modern American university and the founding of the great medieval universities in Europe chief among them Bologna Paris and Oxford

As those institutions were The Marathas became the strongest power in Northern India in the mid eighteenth century. They played the role of king makers at the Delhi Court

They acted as the defenders of the country against foreign invaders like Ahmad
