Aug 10 2017 Should I say the thing is corrupted or the thing is corrupt ? Would they carry different meanings? i.e My hard drive is corrupted so all of my information is lost vs My hard drive is corrupt Aug 27 2015 When it is said that the files are corrupt it isn't clear whether the files were corrupt from the time they were created due to problems with data entry ETC

or that the files became corrupt after a problem

Saying that the files are now corrupted implies that there was a clean state for the files in the past and that they need to be returned to the clean state for the software to Jun 24 2019 Adjective for made of pure or corrupted by pure or something of something of pure Ask Question Asked 6 years 6 months ago Modified 2 years ago Mar 7 2012 This might be tough considering the gesture is iterated so many ways but it's worth a shot

What is the origin of the expression one man's trash is another man's treasure? Its meaning has thus been corrupted over the centuries probably by the English nobility of the Middle Ages to whom the blood line was all important

Albert Jack 2005 Jan 31 2025 [Peer is an easier form to pronounce than pear so it's become corrupted in much the same way as Antipodean English might change the pronunciation of pear to be less like English pear and more like peer.] Apparent has a more direct route from aparoir apparere that is from the OF aparant and never changed to e it's always been a To make its meaning utterly clear and immediately apparent those online sources should state Gardyloo as coming from French se garder de literally guard oneself from [=protect oneself from take cover shelter] corrupted into Garder in old colloquial French Apr 8 2016 For instance The message was staticky and corrupted making it not understandable

Not understandable sounds strange and like a double negative. I'm looking for a single word to take the place. Some results suggest bizarre and alien but that's not what I'm going for

The speaker knows what it is but can't understand it Nov 23 2013 Specifically I'm looking for the term for when a person uses a word correctly but intends a different meaning. For example I empathize with you

When the person really means I sympathize w Dec 6 2014 It's simply an attempt for English speakers to pronounce French phonemes I don't believe there's an additional reason. The word appeared in English as lieutenant and an alternative leftenant was made to stick to the pronunciation

The pronunciation being very difficult for English speaker. The lefttenant doesn't exist in French at least I didn't find it I will search further.
