Apr 27 2015 9 If you say that someone is crazy like a fox it means that their behavior appears to be insane or nonsensical at first glance but there s actually something very clever and subtle to it that s working toward their interests in unexpected ways

However I do not understand the meaning of being sanely insane ? How can one be sanely insane? Both are used in similes crazy like a fox tight as a drum which are after all just explicit comparisons

For the most part these follow the rules above if I am crazy like a fox then I am crazy in the same manner as a fox not at least as crazy as a fox May 16 2011 Could it be related to acting like a crazed ape and could the later go bananas and go batshit [crazy] derive from it?
