May 15 2025 Previous rounds of CodeSprintLA were very exciting contests attracting some of the worlds best competitive programmers! CodeSprintLA 2023 and 2024 each had around 600 participants. May 18 2025 CodeSprintLA is ACM ICPC at UCLAs annual beginner friendly algorithms contest

Teams of up to 3 participants will compete to write programs to solve challenging out of the box algorithms problems and will be ranked by number of problems solved with ties broken by time. May 18 2025 Participants are ranked by the number of solved problems breaking ties by penalty sum of time + 20 minutes per wrong submission for all solved problems

Time is rounded to minutes

Standings are shown without limitation. Welcome to the official repository for CodeSprint 25 held on October 15 2025 with around 30 people participating in this contest! Inside you'll find the solution code for each challenge along with the test cases used for evaluation on HackerRank

Thank you to everyone who participated and made this event a memorable success! May 21 2025 Last Sunday May 18th our club participated in CodeSprintLA 25 a 5 hour ICPC style contest open to teams all around the world
