Feb 16 2009 I agree with sound shift. fascinationof seems to imply that you are talking about the snakes being fascinating rather than him being fascinated with them if that makes any sense! fascinationfor sounds OK but I think with is by far the best option Mar 11 2017 I d use by in that sentence but you re more likely to hear The film I saw yesterday was fascinating. Both fascinated by and fascinated with can be used depending on the sentence

I can t think of a context in which fascinated about might be used Feb 16 2019 Dear all is it correct to say I have afascinationwith drawing. Or should I say I have afascinationwith drawing pictures

Thank you Apr 14 2023 Remember that fascination means attractive power or fascinating quality powerful attraction charm. Now rewrite your question and see if you come to the same conclusion Aug 15 2006 Indefinite and interrogative pronouns modified by an adjective require the use of de

One can give many examples personne d intelligent rien d extraordinaire quelqu'un d important quelque chose d utile qui d autre quoi de neuf. Even when other adjuncts are used the structure is the same hence Je n ai jamais rencontr   personne d aussi intelligent qu elle

Note too that the adjectives Aug 11 2019 And note that the nounfascinationis very common whereas captivation is very rare. Its also worth bearing in mind the roots of the words captivate is associated with being taken captive andfascinationwith being spellbound

There are various other terms along the same lines such as enchant enthrall bewitch beguile Jul 2 2017 Jon Snow was staring at him a look equal parts horror andfascination. I read this sentence in A Game of Thrones

Now I rewrite it into this version Jon s look was equal parts horror andfascination. I know its meaning

But my question is what is the grammar phenomenon of equal parts May 28 2015 Hello can wonder be used as a synonym for fascination ? More specifically would a sentence like You have the wonder of a summer sunset make any sense? Thank you Nov 17 2006 Does it hold a particularfascinationfor non native students of English? Is it one of the words that English language courses use to explain some peculiarity of English or English speakers? I think that at least in Spain nowadays is considered by non native students of English as a safe solid starting point for a discursive essay May 17 2011 What would the exact meaning of the phrase I m in awe of you be in the context of a man saying it to a woman he is getting to know and like? Admiration?Fascination? Other? Thank you.
