Dec 8 2023 What exactly are frat houses and sororities and how do they function. I have only ever seen them in American movies of course they don't really exist where I am from so I have no idea about them

They look like clubs that one can join just for fun but their existence is kinda confusing to me Dec 21 2021 Even the financial aspect of it being in house is pretty comparable to paying rent on a student apartment

One guy did the math on house living vs common student apartment rent and found that living in house was on the lower end of the spectrum when you compared it to what rent would be off campus We've got a couple gay guys in our chapter. And tbh gay frat members are FaF

They bring hella girls to the parties and set up the guys with 10 10s for formals and date parties

Idk how it is in Arkansas but if the guys there know what's good for them having a gay guy in the chapter is so clutch For you guys in a frat alumni of a frat how was your frat experience and best things about it? For context I'm an upcoming sophomore at ASU thinking of rushing a social frat next year

I want to know what was your experience like as a frat member. What were some things you liked and disliked about it? The movie's title is Frat House 98 It's a real life shock film documentary of what goes on behind the scenes of college fraternities

Side note This will be a challenge I've searched everywhere for this film including on Tor browser and other miscellaneous VPN browsers Depending on the type of university and city there may be a frat row where all the Greek houses are on one block or in a consolidated area

We had a house capable of having 60 guys living in it and members were required to live in at least 1 year. Inside the house each room rented is furnished by the tenant Also anything that you intend to keep forever depending on your group of guys don't leave it in a frat house

One drunken mistake to forget to lock the door could turn into a group of drunk girls or non brothers getting into your room and stealing or breaking your shit Bunch of drunk people having disorganized screaming conversation in a tiny room. Frat parties are usually pretty trashy as well depending on the university

Bunch of blackout blonde girls in crop tops and football players with backwards hats tryna get lucky with them sometimes horrifyingly by any means necessary Nov 19 2014 Cool Nicknames for Frat Houses I'm getting a party house and I want it to have a dope name
