Ganyu has quickly gone from being Cryo Amber to instead being Cryo Klee and we couldn't be happier about this as it gives us another reason to stare at her

She is arguably now one of the best Main DPS as well as Support Character in Genshin Impact and with good gear she makes all the currently available content in the game very trivial Jan 28 2022 Even if Ganyu full sets options are really good if you are a low AR player you should only focus on main and sub stats

MAIN SUB STATS Sands should be Elemental Mastery for Melt Playstyle Atk % can also work but will net you less damage overall. The difference can be closer in particular teams No Bennett Amos etc Jan 25 2022 Bonus fact Ganyu isn't actually a doormat

Read her voice lines and you'll see she has some strong opinions she's just too professional to rambling about heretics this reprobates that at work Jan 10 2022 If using freeze most of Ganyu's damage will come from her burst and not from her charge attacks so Amos passive is less important

Polar star High refined Prototype Crescent Skyward Harp will have more impact so generally speaking C1 is a better choice

Keep in mind that in most cases C1 will be cheaper than Amos to pull Aug 17 2023 I do want to say first that I do not want to urge or instill FOMO into any of my fellow Ganyu mains so prioritize first your pulling plans and personal financial health

Right now I have Aqua Simulacra and an unbuilt Amos Bow but I was interested in The First Great Magic since others are calling it her new bis Aug 6 2022 Ganyu is the best unit in the game if you're playing with keyboard and mouse because she basically shoots liquid nitrogen saturation grenades with huge damage and AOE

Her only real downside is that if you R into aim stance instead of holding leftclick to charge her shots you lose the ability to dodge Melt Ganyu has higher DPS potential but is clunkier. Pick your poison

To expand on that Melt Ganyu outdamages Freeze Ganyu but her only viable Melt support for actual Pyro application right now is Xiangling and playing Ganyu along with Xiangling is kind of a pain in the ass because of how it requires you to position with Pyronado Jun 13 2022 Freeze Ganyu aqua S is better in most cases

People saying Amos is better are only testing the charge shots but don't forget that Ganyu burst is a more significant portion of total dps in freeze and that will benefit more from the CD and dmg passive. Melt Ganyu aqua S can be stronger if you're close enough to activate the passive

Also experiment with atk circlet for all builds Which one do you think is better
