This publication is designed for the homegardener whether a beginner or an old hand

We hope newgardenerswill find it basic enough and that experiencedgardenerswill find new ideas and solutions to some of their old problems The Extension MasterGardenerProgram was created to meet an increase in requests from homegardenersfor horticul tural information

This increase derives pri marily from the urban and transient nature of modern American life TheGardenersGuide What To Do When USDA Plant Hardiness Zones for Maryland 5a 5b 6a 6b 7a 7b 8a The Texas MasterGardenerprogram is an educational volunteer program conducted by the Texas A M AgriLife Extension Service

Through MasterGardenertraining individuals can advance theirgardeningexperience with up to date research based horticulture information Upon completion of the training period all MasterGardenertrainees are required to pass a comprehensive examination on the materials covered throughout training

The MasterGardenersassist Agents and staff therefore represent and serve as an outreach for the UF IFAS Extension Program The performance of local MasterGardenerprojects may also be assessed annually to ensure that projects continue to meet the educational mission of the MasterGardenerprogram fulfill the needs of the local community and are an appropriate use of time and resources NUAL Dedication To the Penn State Extension MasterGardenersin recognition of their outstanding volunteer eforts promoting sustainable horticultural practices and environmental stewardship in Pennsylva.
