From what I can tell this company is just a Uber eats delivery system for packages which I have no idea why any company would trust a system like that 10 No shipping related posts unopened package photos or tag collection photos This includes screenshots of where your item is located questions or complaints around shipping processing times or missing packages images videos of drivers and trucks delivering your packages and photos of unopened packages Jul 24 2020 A random biker was passing by saw FedEx holding the lulupackages waited for them to leave and then stole the packages

Of course it is not FedEx or Lulus fault but they really need DISCREET PACKAGING However it makes it very clear that its lululemon and prone to theft which is unfortunately common

How do you go about it to get help? Lulus is not liable for lost or stolen packages We recommend contacting the shipping carrier as soon as your package states delivered and you're not able to locate it to file a missing package claim Shipping and delivery information from fees and timing of domestic and international orders to troubleshooting delays missing packages or wrong items I just had my package of $250 items stolen

This is the first time I've ever had a package stolen from my apartment. I looked at the delivery proof and I saw that it had lululemon labeled all over it in bold. Wtf? You won't send a Gucci package with Gucci labeled all over it. That's just inviting thieves.
