How to use Having in English

I have come across below statement. The customer having left the criminal takes out a pin from his purse and scrapes off hardened glue from the edges of the keys Jul 25 2018 To have Having exceeded the company's annual goals for productivity all employees in A corporation's manufacturing division received a bonus

I don't choose what is the correct answer to it Having is the present participle of the verb have so having different opinions is a participle clause. With is a preposition so with different opinions is a prepositional phrase

Both participle clauses and prepositional phrases can function as adverbials and in your examples the meaning is similar Aug 9 2016 Have is a word in English that has many different meanings. One of those and probably the most common is to possess

Another meaning is to experience or to undergo in the sense of some situation or effect materializing around you whether it starts outside of you I'm having trouble a problem a situation or inside of you I'm having pain in my arm a fever a panic attack these are Having completed the task I was free to go. Having completed the task he was free to go. Having completed the task they were free to go

Prosecuting attorney Colonel Mustard having completed the task did you leave the premises immediately? Or did you stick around and murder Professor Plum in the living room with the candleabra? HAVING HAD Jun 16 2020 The nuance of to have and having is interesting. In addition to the matter of present and continuous this also speaks about the possession and the action

Being happy is to have dreams in life to have here talks a bit more about the possession. Being happy is having dreams in life having here talks a bit more about the action

Though both will convey the message to me that if one wants to Nov 29 2021 Having seen my mother work tirelessly I was inspired to work hard. In this case you can see that the subject of the sentence is I. OR the participle phrase can be the subject of a sentence. In this use it is sometimes called a gerund

There is no need for these to use perfective have+V3 you can have ing verbs with no have Jun 21 2014 What is the difference between these two sentences and when should I use them while talking? He had same problem like my father. and He was having same problem like my father

Please explain You don't use the word have as a main verb in the progressive to talk about things you own or possess. So the correct sentence is He has a cell phone.
