Jan 7 2016 It washewho messed up everything. It was him who messed up everything

What is the difference between these two sentences? Jul 24 2018 What ishe? Does the question refer to whatheis doing for a living? Who ishe? Does it refer to his name? For example heis Peter Feb 23 2012 mplungjan But he s an apple can be mistaken for heis an apple while hehas an apple might be intended

This rule doesn t work generally therefore it can hardly be called a rule The case ofhe him should depend on other considerations such as the proper case after the linking verb is

It should be simply a matter of which is more correct It isheOr It is himMyLatin education would have me pick the former. Butmyknowledge of colloquial English tells me that the phrase it was him is commonly used Hesaid QQQ. QQQ hesaid. QQQ saidhe

In particular in what situations is the inverted VS 1 order of saidhepreferred over either or both of the two versions that usehesaid in the normal SV 2 order? Are these nothing more than three equal options that vary by individual writers personal tastes? 3 Where ishe? Do you know whereheis? Yes I know whereheis

The natural subject predicate order is inverted in special questions those beginning with an interrogative pronoun such as what where etc but not in object clauses. By object clause I mean a clause that substitutes a single word object. For example I know [him]

I know [this May 10 2019 As far as I understand you use a semi colon to separate main clauses joined by conjunctive adverbs however therefore moreover nevertheless then thus

And when you use a conjunctive adverb Jun 19 2011 I know there are different opinions on this issue.Myquestion Is using he for a general gender neutral third person still in common use for formal writing? By common use I mean can I expectmy Oct 16 2014 2 To convert the statementHeis from the USA into a Yes No question one moves the first auxiliary verb is in this example all forms of be are auxiliaries to a position before the subject noun phrase hein this example and adds a question intonation if speaking or a question mark if writing

So the result is Ishefrom the USA? Grammatically forhe she it we use does or doesn t like in Hedoesn t eat meat. but these days I m observing the usage of the above sentence especially in American movies like this Hedon t eat meat

So after a lot of observations I m assuming that both usages are correct.Myassumption When to use don t ? In temporary situations.
