What is the difference between these two sentences? Jul 24 2018 What is he? Does the question refer to what he is doing for a living? Who is he? Does it refer to his name? For example he is Peter. The case of he should depend on other considerations such as the proper case after the linking verb is

By common use I mean can I expect my Grammatically for he she it we use does or doesn't like in He does not eat meat but these days I'm observing the usage of the above sentence especially in American movies like this He doesn't eat meat. So after a lot of observations I'm
