Sep 16 2024 A few Bald faced Yellow Jackets and Europeanhornetsdo little harm to healthy colonies. They can smell distress though so if a colony is dyingsick and or Queenlesstheyll be there in a heartbeat

Now Yellow Legged and Giant AsianHornetsare a whole different kettle of fish altogether Aug 31 2009 Has anyone tested the bee suits with bald face white facedhornets the ones that build those big conical grey enlarging as the season progresses paper nests

We were kind of joking in chat this evening about putting a suit on and ripping in tohornets nestfor an authentic test of hornet Sep 14 2023 We have more Europeanhornetsthis year than I ever remember seeing before

Not sure how much of an impact they have on my bee population but I m getting tired of seeing them hanging around my hives and flying away with bees

Has anyone tried making a trap like the one in the video below Aug 11 2021 Has anybody figured out what size screen works best to keep EuropeanHornetsout of the hives while working best to allow pollen to stay on bees? Has anybody learned if there is a variety that is better than others at resistinghornets? I ve tried native northern dark bees and Saskatraz

Both are rather small honeybees. Does it matter? Aug 15 2013 Thehornets wasps goal is to gain access to the soft nutritious brood

A few dead bees is no big deal if you have raiding parties then you may want to do something to slow them Jun 22 2012 Overheard JapaneseHornetskilled my husband last month in NC No Japanese H right? My understanding is that in the 19th century EuropeanHornets Vespa crabro were accidentally brought here and those are our biggest hornet but JapaneseHornets Vespa mandarinia japonica the huge bee Jul 10 2016 I usually try to pick and discard any bird damaged or spoiled figs before they attract wasps yellow jackets Baldfaced and Europeanhornets Japanese beetles and June bugs

I ve eaten a few breba figs on my Brown Turkey Hardy Chicago and Italian honey fig trees but no main crop figs have ripened Jul 3 2010 Re I havea Bald Faced Hornet snestin my front yard if you ve never fooled withhornets they attack enmass and will sting right through a bee suit each hornet multiple times things can get ugly real quick. even spraying them can get dicey. suit up be carefull and be prepared. good luck mike P.S

sorry for the repeat post i m a 1 finger typist on dial up and people get ahead of me Jul 19 2008 I ve noticed the increase in Yellow jackets and some yellow facedhornetspicking up dead bees in front of the hives in my yards
