Passaic County Prosecutors Office Special Victims Unit reporting that an eight month old infant had been pronounced deceased at St Josephs University Medical Center in Paterson New Jersey. The infant was brought to the hospital earlier that day by Ms. Roman the childs mother and Mr Delgado who was not related to Abstract This article explores the question of how two highly controversial writers of Turkish literature approach the rupture between the past and the present or more precisely between tradition and modernity

Atay and Tanpnar brought a new perspective to Turkish literature by questioning and overcoming the usual approaches to the East West issue. What distinguishes them in the Turkish.
