bang on about informal talk tediously and at length about something the government banged on about competition efficiency and the free market. He was banged up in a Nepal jail for six months. 177AI He banged his head against the lamppost and hurt it

But as the door banged she seemed to come to life again. He banged the chair against the brick wall. He was banged up in a Nepal jail for six months. Sprinting to the pickup she slammed the door behind her and banged down the door locks

I banged my elbow on the corner of the table. If it has a flat surface it must be banged upon.
