What is the difference between the following sentences? I would prefer to discuss the matter in private. I would like to discuss the matter in private. I am used to prefer used in sentences sim Just saw this prefer~ing prefer to infinitive and I am wondering if there are any differences between prefer doing and prefer to do. I have read a book about grammar that says there is a subtle difference between them and I would like to confirm this concept Sep 4 2016 In this site Both prefer would prefer express the preference

This site said You can use prefer to do or prefer ing to say what you prefer in general We use would prefer to say what somebody wants in a particular situation not in general. However this site said We can use would prefer and prefer with the same meaning

However the only difference is that we I prefer to eat candy rather than to eat ice cream probably the less common but grammatically correct. I would like to know if my understanding and notion of these sentences is 100 percent accurate and could perfectly be used by any native speaker if they were to give a presentation on Perfect English Grammar At college Aug 3 2015 Then how about prefer to infinitive ? I prefer to study at a coffee shop to to study in the library. I think it sounds not correct rather I would use like this I prefer to study at a coffee shop rather than studying in the library

Is there any other option for this? Or is my suggestion the best choice? Jun 16 2020 What time do you prefer going to bed? What time do you prefer to go to bed? Which of these would you rather use when writing or speaking? Dec 12 2023 Lastly prefer and would prefer also use tend to use different constructions

If the poster gave a more complete hypothetical describing the situation they want to express it would be easier to answer Jun 16 2020 With prefer it's optional whether or not to downplay the strength of the assertion using auxiliary would but with rather you need it often contracted to d in informal contexts because it's actually the main verb rarely used that way today except in established collocations like would rather would sooner Oct 30 2023 Why the sentence Today I prefer to stay at home because it's snowing is incorrect? And why should I use would instead of prefer ? I have no idea how to express myself correctly in this case

What is the right way to say that I prefer to not do that or I prefer not to do that or something else?.
