Mar 16 2017 Suhr insert any other small name builder builds guitars using a combination of experience and the sourcing of woods and parts that is also guided by that experience

They are then built by experienced hands to a very high level of tolerances and then finished to a very high level of tolerances and finally inspected qc Feb 19 2020 Suhr used to work in the Fender Custom Shop making guitars. Left and started his own company

Everything I ve seen it s a stand up company and you ll get what you are spending your cash on. Same with Fender Custom Shop models Oct 21 2022 The two Suhr T s I have owned for a long time are easily among my favorite guitars

The wear on the 2006 black one is genuine from 16 years of sweaty and mostly outdoor gigs bars along the gulf coast of Alabama and Florida Sep 1 2021 Most Suhr s have a flatter radius though and that makes a big difference. My CS Strats are 9.5 and 10 radius guitars respectively

Good luck and curious to hear how it goes! Aug 16 2009 The Anderson body is more like the Suhr Standard a little downsized from the Suhr Classic which is pretty much Fender Strat sized

I ve played several Andersons and owned an SSS Suhr Classic Sep 29 2013 I apologize in advance if there are 1 000 other threads with this question but seriously what makes Suhr guitars so good? I m about to decide between a PRS Custom 24 or a Suhr Modern Pro Series S7 with a Basswood body Maple top Pau Ferro Fretboard and I m stuck Suhr guitars look very nice and you definitely get your monies worth

When you play a great guitar like Suhr Anderson and Tyler you will be able to see where that extra money goes compared to an off the rack fender or Gibson

If you have the cash treat yourself to a amazing guitar like a Suhr Dec 12 2024 If Suhr built big neck guitars all the time you would have massive threads complaining about it lol. Instead we get a couple big neck lovers that generalize about Suhr necks when the company is a custom shop

You order what you like. If you don t find many big neck guitars there s a reason for that. You just have to order what you want Feb 5 2011 I own Fender Suhr and Tyler guitars. I love my James Tyler guitars

With the right pick ups they sound better than my masterbuilt Stratocasters which sound better than many vintage examples I ve played believing that your Tyler wasn t any better than an average Fender H S S Stratocaster is a difficult for me
