Inns are generally establishments or buildings where travelers can seek lodging and usually food and drink. Inns are typically located in the country or along a highway. In Great Britain, inns numbered about 6 000 by the late 16th century.

European inns of that period were planned around the sides of a courtyard; were several stories high and featured arcaded or balustraded galleries above the ground level. There are other small inns and B&Bs are scattered across the communities of 30A, but for long stays or big groups a rental is the best option.
