Nov 6 2018 The answer in both instances is have .Itis ungrammatical to use has in questions that begin with Do or Does. In these types of questions the verb do is conjugated based on whether the noun is first second or third person eg Do I Doyouor Does he

The have part of the question is not conjugated and appears as the bare infinitive regardless of the person of the noun Feb 9 2016 I have a question about where to use is andhas

Examples Tea is come or Teahascome Lunch is ready or Lunchhasready He is come back or Hehascome back She is assigned for work or She doesn thasa book. She doesn t have a book

Why is the first sentence wrong? We use has with singular and she is singular Feb 7 2016 Can anyone tell me where we have to use has and where we have to use have ? I am confused. Can anyone explain me in a simple way? Jul 24 2015 Hehasthe bottle

They have the bottle For questions or special emphasisyouuse an auxiliary verb > finite together with a verb in the infinitive He does play cricket

Do they like cricket? So yes in these cases do becomes does for third person singular becauseitis finite Oct 24 2023 Which of the following is correct and most importantly why ? A glimmer of light after what havebeenlong weeks of darkness

A glimmer of light after whathas beenlong weeks of darkness. The Nov 26 2015 I have read a similar question here but that one talks about the usage ofhas have with reference to anyone

Here I wish to ask a question of the form Does anyonehas have a black pen? What Nov 26 2017 Does she have a child?Hasshe a child? In American English youneed to use the auxiliaries do and does with the main verb have to form a question in the present tense

In British English youcan use either the do and does with have or the main verb have only as in the second sentence to form a question. So the second sentence that starts with the verb have is correct in formal BrE Sep 12 2020 The contraction is possible

It has got four legs The verb is has got and has is an auxiliary. The contraction is possible. This is how we tend to use contractions when speaking fairly carefully

When speaking quickly has as a main verb tends to be reduced to z especially in British accents This might be written as s Nov 13 2021 The subject of have is
