May 30 2012 Sometimes the chime may get out of synch with the time shown by the hands of the clock. For example it may play the quarter chime at half past the half chime at a quarter till the hour and so on

When that happens an auto correction feature which most chiming clocks have will automatically put things back on track in very short order Chime is not a bank but a tech company that partners with a real bank to provide its services. Chime is the worst when you have a problem

They will not protect you

I opened my account in 2016 and it was fine until last year when I had a problem and they totally screwed me despite me providing receipts and proof of my argument Aug 10 2024 Your clock should chime every 15 minutes so a few minutes before let s say for example 12 13 minutes after the hour the clock should release the chime wheel and fly for a half a turn and stop this is what is known as warning. when the minute hand reached 15minutes after the hour the stop lever drops and the chime wheel will turn and the Welcome to the SSA SSI VA Early deposits Megathread! Here here youll find basic information and answers to frequently asked questions
