Feb 14 2015 It's similar to lick as in hit a lick but not necessarily with the robbery connotation though it could be I would liken it to the mafia guys saying they made a score so it could be like a profitable drug deal or a robbery or even getting a lot of money for some other services like rapping or even doing yard work so long as it was quick easy and profitable

Juug literally means to Sep 16 2022 Jugghas a really bad matchup versus the best carry of the patch Faceless Void

You can Timewalk out of Omni or Spin and Chrono just kills Juggfull to zero every time especially with the removal of his HP talent at 25. The counter to Jugg is not an item on carries but more how you play the game. Jugg's game plan is basically ult to kill 1 or 2 important heroes and then right click the 3-4 heroes running away if for some reason his ult finishes without accomplishing it. He basically can't fight unless his team gets a great initiation otherwise Juggernaut only has 2 DPS specs and one of them is shared with the Mara although there are functional differences between the Jugg and Mara version.

The Marauder plays around fury stacks and Berserk use which grants a short DPS gain. The Juggforce leap can be awesome if you let yourself immerse in the fantasy of being the incredibly fearless unstoppable force of dark side force.

So I have to say the Jugg animations Currently running through the Sith Warrior story with a Rage Juggernaut and it just feels right.

I've got Assassin as my second style for those maps where you just don't feel like fighting every Tom Dick and Han but mostly it's just the Jugg. I really don't understand how to deal with this hero; it seems like he counters everything which offlaner is the best to counter Jugg? There's more pros than cons for both classes. Rage pros are you start every combat with Enrage available and can have no cooldown and spam skills during a long and short gap closer. Its con is probably the lull between Enrage being back up.

Vengeance's big pro is dot spread and the negative is enemies that die before you can properly spread dots Apr 8 2022 261K subscribers in the AfterEffects community. After Effects help and inspiration the Reddit way.
