OutCares Mentorship Program offers a unique cost free opportunity for individuals over 18 seeking guidance on school career and research from experienced LGBTQ+ affirming mentors. Join our community of LGBTQ+ young people.

We facilitate one on one and group connections in ways that center joy and healing.

Our programming uplifts your unique experiences including your LGBTQ+ identities, race, ability, and everything else that's a part of who you are. The programme works by connecting mentees with mentors LGBTQ+ and allies across different organisations and regions around the world.

The programme also serves as a reverse mentoring opportunity to find out more about the experience of walking in an LGBTQ+ person's shoes. Mentoring relationships play a key role in increasing young people's access to inclusive spaces where they can be who they are without fear of judgement.

This is particularly true for the LGBTQ+ community. Join a warm hearted growth oriented group of lesbians and adjacent queer people who may become your chosen family from all over the U.S.

Canada and 23 other countries. Through this program, LGBTQ+ students can receive assistance and encouragement to develop positive and authentic LGBTQ+ identities.

The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer (LGBTQ) Mentoring Program empowers LGBTQ students to live more full, happy, and productive lives. Researchers at UCLA found that fewer than one in five LGBTQ+ youths have had a formal mentor.

To tackle this damaging lack of positive role models, Love to All Project partners with leaders around the globe to provide support and mentorship for LGBTQ+ young adults. Aug 26, 2025. In this first post, we discuss ways all mentors can support LGBTQ+ students through personal education, visible allyship, supporting students' identity development, and humanizing the student.

Our next post will make recommendations for mentors who themselves identify as LGBTQ+. Feb 8, 2024. In honour of this, we are celebrating some of our favourite LGBTQ+ mentors in history.

From famous singers to activists and groups of mentors who teamed up together, you're about to discover some of the most inspirational people ever. Queer Peer Mentors is an 8-week peer-to-peer mentoring program open to first-year CWRU students! The goals of QPM are to provide emotional and social support through the transition from high school to university and to connect mentees to resources and to each other.
