Aug 6 2024 Doctors explain the difference between marionette lines and nasolabial folds plus which treatments work best for each from dermal fillers to plastic surgery Jan 14 2011 Marionette labiomandibular lines are best treated with fillers or a facelift

Occasionally botulinum toxin can be used in the Depressor anguli oris to limit downturning of the corner of the mouth which can make the marionette lines appear more prominent Oct 24 2009 While Botox is not generally considered the best treatment for lines around the mouth marionette lines are affected by a specific muscle that pulls down the sides of the lips so Botox can be helpful with expert injection

In addition these lines are usually caused by volume loss and are also improved with the use of dermal fillers such as Restylane Juvederm or Radiesse. An in person Mar 27 2015 So I've gotten my marionette lines filled because the corners of my mouth when I smile go downward

The left corner of my mouth still goes downward it's less visible now but you still notice it. The right corner of my mouth is fine though

Is there anything I can do without using too much fillers? Nov 5 2007 I have marionette lines lip lines and wrinkles all at once! What's the best wrinkle fillers to get rid of these lines!? Oct 10 2013 I'm 26 the older I get the more noticeable this weird fat pocket is around my mouth where my marionette lines are

It's more so on my right side than my left Nov 3 2025 Hello! My name is Jessica I am a physician assistant and one of the providers at Aesthetic Skin Winnetka Chicago. This is a great question

Yes fillers can effectively soften deep marionette lines and lift the downturned corners of the mouth restoring a smoother and more balanced lower face but achieving natural results depends entirely on placement product choice and injector Sep 11 2024 Marionette lines can definitely make the lower face feel heavy and give a tired or aged appearance and it's completely normal to want to find the right solution

It sounds like your injector suggested filler because they believe the lines are caused by volume loss which is common as we age Dec 3 2010 Those lines are referred to as marionette lines and they are often treated using injectable dermal fillers

There are a number of fillers that can work well in this area but I particularly like Restylane Defyne because it fills in the lines effectively without limiting the natural movement of the face. Fillers are quick to administer and do not
