Ill post pics as Dec 24 2015 Hi Men I have my Miller Mod Saws Solo 665 681 for sale. It was a new 665 that he bought when he was a dealer and then he built it up with a new 681 OEM top end. He emptied out the muffler and added a second outlet so the muffler is a hollow can now

The jug has been machined and ported. I had Dec 4 2015 Selling my ms500i in like new condition. Took this on trade several months back for my MMWS 400. Ive put a couple tanks thru it

Runs as it should. $1350 shipped lower 48 pho Jan 11 2016 MMS7900 is excellent condition. Bought this saw from FI chainsaw Joe when he was still around. Only ever ran 3 4 tanks through it as i have a less pretty 7900 that I generally grab

Saw was built with a 28 bar in mind. Handles it with authority. Everything works as it should

$900 Nov 4 2025 Apr 14 2024 So Tex S SOLD Carl MillerMMSRed Makita 64 7910 Full Wrap whitesnake Apr 23 2024 Whole Chainsaws for Sale Trade 2 Replies 34 Views 6K Jan 31 2025 Dec 30 2015 If youre happy and you know it post here This thread has been stickied and moved to Chainsaws for ease of reference

Got a graph to share??? Post it up HERE please include the numbers and saw mods builder. Have a comment to share ??? Post it in the dyno discussion thread. This can be a Handy Quick reference without the chatter Apr 1 2016 For example

A PN of 1125xxxxxxxx with a front chain adjuster will be 034 or 034 super. If it has a side chain adjuster it will be for a 036. Flippy cap will tell you if it s for the MS series. No flippy cap it s for the 0 series

Unless it s a 066 or ms660 they all had screw caps Hope this helps. I know it sounds a little confusing Click Jan 5 2016 Hi gang Well as I am laid up for awhile I thought I would occupy my mind by beginning the process of my Solo 665 to 681 project

Dexter Day has an excellent write up that I have followed but I am currently running into a small snag that I thought I would ask you all about. I have gotten as Jan 2 2016 Unfortunately I don t see anyone posting like the do the S N date for 10mms the 046 460 stuff all seems a lot more vague
