Most societies consider murder to be an extremely serious crime and thus believe that a person convicted of murder should receive harsh punishments for the purposes of retribution, deterrence, rehabilitation or incapacitation. The meaning of MURDER is the crime of unlawfully and unjustifiably killing a person. Specifically, law defines such a crime committed under circumstances defined by statute. In criminal law, the killing of one person by another that is not legally justified or excusable is usually distinguished from the crime of manslaughter by the element of malice aforethought. Most states distinguish between different degrees of murder: first, second and third.

Some states use the Model Penal Code to legally define murder and the subsequent punishments.

At common law, murder was historically defined as killing another human being with malice aforethought. 18 hours ago An 80-year-old artist and her two sons and her daughter-in-law were all killed in a suspected triple-murder-suicide in a swanky Seattle suburb early Tuesday morning.
