The UnofficialSkyrimPatch version 1.0 fixes thisbug

Although you can t trade items with him yet you can still fix this by simply putting him into command mode target him and hold Activate until the cursor changes then targeting the sword or a Silver Great Sword and pressing Activate again Dec 18 2015 For some reason after completing this initiating quest ProvingHonor the quest shows complete but the subsequent objective Talk to Companion leaders about work never does anything so Im not sure which quest isbugged Apr 12 2013 Does anybody know how to fix thebugat the end ofProvingHonorwhen you return to Jorrvaskr with Farkas and Skjor can t be talked to? I ve tried waiting going in and out of Jorrvaskr sleeping and even restarting the game and nothing is working Mar 24 2024 TheglitchI am currently facing is in the quest ProvingHonor given by the Companions specifically Skjor

I am not going to spoil anything but essentially I am supposed to return to Jorrvaskr and Vilkas is supposed to talk to me Jan 11 2014 On the last part of the quest line forProvingHonor Return to Jorrvaskr I m supposed to meet with Vilkas on the steps outside of the building at least this is what I ve been told

However Vilkas isn t there and when I go around the back for the initiation it starts finishes and thenbugshot so I can no longer move Jul 16 2016 I ve installed the UnofficialSkyrimLegendary Edition patch and I m going to play through the entire quest again but that s annoying and I m hoping that someone can share advice on how to avoid this as I don t want to lose 5 hours of progress I did other quests Nov 18 2012 In the quest provinghonor I get to the point where I have to give the shard to skjor

I do then the quest is marked as finished but the objective return to jorrvaskr is marked as incomplete. It tells me to look for work from the leaders but I am unable to do so or progress in any other way May 16 2021 Load order is the cause of a lot of problems in this game

I am probably wrong about this but I was always to understand that .esm files are all listed first and load before the .esp files and any other miscellaneous files Jan 11 2025 After you gather the first fragment of wuuthrad and return to jorrvaskr via fast travel vilkas will not always be outside waiting for you

It gets fixed if you fast travel back out or reload a save prior and go through the main gates of whiterun but nonetheless sometimes it still does not worl Dec 27 2015 I m not even sure if people will bother to look at this but i seem to have a very weirdbugwith the companions quest

I completedprovinghonorand returned back to Jorrvaskr.
