The string another is vanishingly rare in English. In contrast another is positively pervasive. I think it would be fair to say that the second has eclipsed the first to the point of making the first unacceptable even though it is a grammatical string

Both an and another are members of the category of determiners while other on the other hand is an adjective. There s no grammatical There s a formula another = an + other. Think of it as of an article plus the word other that have historically merged into one word

Grammar requires some article before other book either the or a

Depending on the context you get either You need to buy the other book if for instance the guy bought only the first book out of the set of two or You need to buy an other book Oct 31 2016 Other other+ plural or uncountable nonspecific noun You can say If I had another five dollars I could afford it

Five dollars is single unit of money. I have to admit that this answer lacked more information previously. With numbers it is acceptable to use another but there are exceptions Nov 16 2012 This is an interesting usage note extracted from the each other page of Yahoo! Education emphasis added

It answers your question. It is often maintained that each other should be used to denote a reciprocal relation between two entities with one another reserved for more than two thus The twins dislike each other but The triplets dislike one another

Sixty four percent of Usage Nother answers A but my stationer. Here the expression as Baker remarks seems strictly proper the words nother having a reference to A

But if the stationer had been the only visitor he [the person speaking to B] should say none but or nother than the stationer called on me this morning. This is the opinion of Baker Feb 16 2014 0 Both are grammatically correct. You can use Something or other which is a usual way of representing

Another method is One thing or another May 2 2015 3 The formal discourse marker used by the OP on the one hand on the other hand expresses two contrasting ideas opinions or facts. In view of this fact I suggest the following alternatives Although I like product A product B also appeals to me strongly

I like product A although product B is also appealing Perhaps though other equivalent phrases can highlight the difference in usage if you replace except for with with the exception of and other than with apart from Then we have Are there any vegetables with the exception of asparagus? which is clearly wrong
