Q A friend of mine admits that the Bible forbids a married person from having sex outside of marriage i.e. adultery but he claims it doesn't say anything about unmarried people having sex. Is he right? There's no such thing as safe sex there's no safety from the pain of heartbreak

Human sexuality was given to a husband and wife to express the unity that binds them together. We find ourselves in emotional quicksand if we go outside those rules of marriage frequently resulting in depression, despair, and possibly disease. Caring people at this organization will be glad to help you.

Be intent on learning God's purpose for your life

Confide in one of your parents or another trusted Christian adult since their love and concern will provide the guidance and understanding you need during this difficult time of your life. There is a rapid decline in morality not only in our nation but also in our churches.

So many couples who go to church are living together unmarried. Q: When we forgive someone for something they've done to us is that supposed to erase all the problems between us? I've truly forgiven a friend for the deep hurt she caused me but I can't pretend it never happened or resume our friendship the way it once was.

Am I wrong to feel this way? Nov 15 2022 According to the Pew Research Center, half of all Christians believe that premarital sex is not a sin. We're allowing culture to define how we live. Lynch said

You can clearly see why most churchgoing Christians are being more influenced by the culture than the culture is being influenced by Christians. The Bible doesn't say where Adam and Eve's first two sons, Cain and Abel, got their wives although it does tell us that Cain and his wife had at least one child, Enoch.

The usual assumption is that Cain and Abel married their sisters. Later this was forbidden by the Old Testament but was necessary at the beginning of the human race.

Don't be sidetracked by questions like this. Q: I find the Old Testament confusing and especially all the sacrifices that people were supposed to make. Why did God command people to do these when they wouldn't completely take away their sins like Jesus' sacrifice did? No, it doesn't.

If you have sincerely repented of your sins and committed your life to Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, then I have good news for you. God has already forgiven all your sins without exception. No, you can't remember all the sins you have ever committed, no person can.
