Address in Independence Hall OnAbrahamLincoln s inaugural journey to Washington as president elect he stopped in Philadelphia at the site where the Declaration of Independence had been signed

One of the most famous statements in the speech was I have never had a feeling politically thatdidnot spring from the sentiments embodied in the Declaration of Independence. This hall also was Publicsentimentis everything. Withpublicsentiment nothing can fail

Without it nothing can succeed.AbrahamLincolnWhat elsedidhesay? Were committed to helping achieve the UN SDGs focusing on Sustainable Communities and Peace Justice Strong Institutions TheAbrahamLincolnportrayed by his biographer David Herbert Donald had two serious shortcomings as a war president and commander in chief

He was the presi dent least prepared for the presidency having had only meager experience inpublicoffice let alone executive and military experience AbrahamLincolns preoccupation with moldingpublicopinion was not something he suddenly discovered in the Civil War AbrahamLincolnquote Withpublicsentiment nothing can fail without it nothing can succeed

Consequently he who mouldspublicsentiment goes Mar 10 2020 In writing his second inaugural address Lincolnspent many months trying to make sense of the war and find a way to ease the hatred that divided the states

Whendidthis process start and howdidhe craft his thesis?Lincolnseemed haunted by the question of what this hellish war meant. How could a just God permit so much death and agony?.
