For the boys and girls who grew in spite of these things to be man and woman to laugh and dance and sing and play and drink their wine and religion and success to marry their playmates and bear children and then die Nov 6 2023 In the third fourth and fifth stanzas for my people becomes for my playmates for the cramped bewildered years and for the boys and girls The Old Familiar Faces By Charles Lamb I have had playmates I have had companions In my days of childhood in my joyful school days Poet and novelist Margaret Walker was born on July 7 1915 in Birmingham Alabama to the Reverend Sigismund C

Walker and Marion Dozier Walker. The family moved to New Orleans when Walker was a young child

A Methodist minister who had been born near Buff Bay Jamaica Walkers father was a scholar who bequeathed to his daughter his love of literature the classics the Bible Benedict de Thy playmates the wild sheep and birds that call Hoarse to the storm thy sport is with the storm To wrestle and thy piety to stand Musing on things create and their Creators hand! This was a remarkably prophetic poem for Manley Hopkinss first beautiful child Gerard born only a year after this poem was published I liked my playmates and knew well Whence all their parents came From England Scotland royal France From Germany and oft by chance Oct 9 2023 In adulthood they remain as conduits for the imagination like the playmates at the poems end pumping so high the swing hiccups

We may continue to look for the gone things inside ourselves inside metaphor image and memory fairy tales taught us that things are not lost but hidden yearning to be transformed Dec 1 2008 Later I would learn that many of our playmates were children of migr academics sons and daughters of linguists historians and scientists who had fled Germany and Eastern Europe At last the people in a body To the Town Hall came flocking Tis clear cried they our Mayor s a noddy And as for our Corporation shocking To think we buy gowns lined with ermine For dolts that can t or won t determine What s like to rid us of our vermin! Bless us cried the Mayor what s Thus did I by the waters brink Another world beneath me think And while the lofty spacious skies Reversed there abused mine eyes I fancied other feet Came mine to touch or meet As by some puddle I did play Another world within it lay

Beneath the water people drowned Yet with another heaven.
