Players Playing the Game Rhythm of PI Restrained Are restrained creature's speed becomes 0 and it can't benefit from any bonus to its speed

Attack rolls against the creature have advantage and the creature's attack rolls have disadvantage

The creature has disadvantage on Dexterity saving throws Feb 3 2025 As a Utilize action you can use Manacles to bind an unwilling Small or Medium creature within 5 feet of yourself that has the Grappled Incapacitated or Restrained condition if you succeed on a DC 13 Dexterity Sleight of Hand check Restrained only sets the creature's movement to zero it says nothing about preventing the restrained creature from being moved

Preventing a restrained creature from being moved is a house rule Dec 5 2017 Restrained shows a man trapped in a Web Grappled shows a man held by several tentacles

Here's where my confusion comes in also related to the PHB image Where does Grappled become Restrained? In magical terms Restrained is very clear for some spells ex. Hold Person Web etc

What about physical means though? May 29 2023 A question I ask myself every time I make a build using Restrained and or Grappled Conditions is whether your movement Speed is regained when you free yourself from either

To Put this into Perspective If I have an enemy Grappled and they free themselves from said Grapple with their Action Mar 21 2025 The Restrained condition not only gives a creature Disadvantage on all attack rolls but it also means that all attack rolls targeting the creature are made with Advantage Restrained adds to that with disadvantage for attack rolls but doesn't prevent them

So if you can load a crossbow and shoot it while restrained then I would think you could still cast a spell.
