Tap Location Location services Google LocationSharing. Turn off Use LocationSharing. Tips This wont stop any of your shares but they wont be updated with your real time location until you turn this setting on

You can use other location services on your device such as Google Maps while this setting is turned off On your Android device open the Google Photos app. At the top tap your account Profile picture or Initial Photos settings.

TapSharingPartnersharing

Select a starting date All time You can share all photos. Since specific date Any photos whose dates come after the selected date are shared. Learn more about filtering by date. Choose photos to share All photos

Only photos containing Jun 2 2020 If yourgirlfriendhas shared her location with you you should be able to find it by following the instructions here Google Maps Help > Share your real time location with others Share your calendar with people or groups Important If you want to share a calendar that someone else owns that person must give you the Make changes and managesharing permission The photos and videos you save from partnersharingwont count against your storage as long as your partner continues to share them with you through partnersharing

Photos of selected people Select from your face groups. When Google Photos recognizes any of those face groups from your partners photos itll save the photos automatically When you sign up for YouTube TV well ask you to share your home zip code

We may also ask you to verify your area location via your device location permissions

This requirement is to make sure you get the right networks in your location I what to transfer allmyphotos from one google account to another because one of them will be delited.Myplan is to do this by using PartnerSharing and then remove one of the accounts

Will this work or will the photos be delited as well? Is the location always exactly where the person yoursharingwith because sometimes it shows her location 3 houses down an are there any tricks or tips? If you re having trouble accessing a Google product there s a chance we re currently experiencing a temporary problem
