Let s make the visa journey a fun one! Nov 17 2023 Posting it here too because I really need advice. I want to go visit the United States and stay with my partner and their family for a bit. Weve been in a long distance relationship and they come to visit me every couple of months

I am currently studying in the UK as an international student. But I am not from a western country so I am afraid my visit visa is going to be rejected. Please I
Jan 29 2023 trueAmerica Josh has a lot of useful resources on the E3 process

AFAIK yes your employer does need to meet the prevailing wage test but if the firm has a legal team or HR dept with visa experience then they should be able to confirm maybe advocate for you to the hiring manager

IME it helps to have the visa conversation 2 3 meetings in to the interview process once youve established Mar 20 2024 truer immigration Current search is within r immigration Remove r immigration filter and expand search to all ofReddit Dec 5 2023 USvisaadviceI am UK citizen with a British passport

I work as n RN and have just been offered a position in Tennessee. However the job cannot sponsor myvisa but looking thevisarequirements it looks like in order to obtain one I need them to do this

Or is there any other method of obtaining a work visa h 1b preferably ???
