Dec 19 2025 Welcome to the age ofsubscriptioncaptive where an increasing share of the things you pay for actuallyownyou

This rant isn't really about streaming platforms Dec 22 2025 Tech products increasingly lock core features behind subscriptions turningownershipinto subscriptioncaptive for recurring revenue

From alarm clocks to cars this shift sparks consumer backlash regulatory scrutiny and calls for trueownership Dec 21 2025 Welcome to the age ofsubscriptioncaptive where an increasing share of the things you pay for actuallyownyou

What vexes me are the companies that sell physical products for a hefty upfront fee and subsequently demand more money to keep using items already in your possession. Feb 21 2025 Thesubscriptionmodel isn't inherently bad but it can trap consumers into endless payments

Companies have mastered makingsubscriptionsseem small while makingownershipdifficult Dec 8 2025 However according to a Wall Street Journal article over the weekend we don't exactly have much choice in the matter graduating from a collective sense ofsubscriptionfatigue to subscriptioncaptive wherein we aren't just overwhelmed

Were locked in Dec 18 2025 In this video we explainsubscriptionlock in like you're five and why companies quietly erasedownershipwhile calling it convenience

What you'll learn How software Bottom line Subscriptionsare supposed to make life easier but they're turning us into accidental bill paying zombies

The fix is simple it's like spring cleaning for your wallet! Cancel the junk keep the good stuff and boom you just gave yourself a free raise without doing extra chores!
