TSA uses unpredictable security measures both seen and unseen throughout the airport

All travelers will be screened and no individual is guaranteed expedited screening. With a streamlined experience for everyone and allowing children 17 and under to join parents in the TSA PreCheck lanes for free, TSA PreCheck is the easiest way for the entire family to enjoy a smoother airport experience. The cost for TSA PreCheck membership renewal varies by enrollment provider.

Please find current offerings here. The fee maintains your eligibility for a period of 5 years and covers the operational costs associated with the background check. Generally, children do not need to apply for TSA PreCheck unless they routinely travel alone.

When traveling as a family and the adults have TSA PreCheck, children 17 and under are eligible for TSA PreCheck without having their own Known Traveler Number (KTN). Get answers to common TSA PreCheck questions including how to apply, eligibility, enrollment providers, renewal steps, and airport screening benefits. Renew your TSA PreCheck membership online in just a few minutes.

Renew through any enrollment provider and keep your existing KTN. If you travel internationally four or more times a year, consider enrolling in Global Entry.

If you take less than four international trips a year, TSA PreCheck is a great choice for domestic travelers. Yes, children 17 and under are eligible for TSA PreCheck screening if they meet certain criteria.

Anyone 18 and older must have their own Known Traveler Number and enter it when booking their airline reservation. Many credit cards and loyalty programs cover the TSA PreCheck application fees. See which ones offer reimbursement and apply today (Dec 22, 2025). Whether you're getting TSA PreCheck ahead of a family holiday trip or for your child traveling back to school after the new year, this is a great chance to save time and money and travel with ease!.
