Not just shirtless naked. Yes naked. You should do it if you're a girl or a boy because it's healthy because it will keep all your body's heat and stress out. I don't think you have to tell her how you felt in order to let this go. Letting go is more about you and much much less about the other person.

Really try to let her go. Try to do things that relax you or keep you too busy to think of her. I don't really see a problem with it. I don't know the rules for Mexico or Russia but in the USA it's counted as rape. Personally I don't see the difference why should.

You both decided having gay sex would be going too far that's the decision straight people make. It's normal to feel a rush while making out with anyone it doesn't make you gay. Don't worry but please decide which side you want to be on. It's your decision.

If you don't want to be known as gay which is another indication you are straight then pursue the kind of girls you.
