Either is acceptable and the practical meaning is the same but their referents implicit not explicit are different May 25 2022 Which one is the best is obviously a question format so it makes sense that which one the best is should be the correct form

This is very good instinct and you could even argue that the grammar is good but at best it is unnatural Apr 2 2019 Your example already shows how to use best as an adverb

It is also a superlative like greatest or highest so just as you would use it as an adjective to show that something is the ultimate example of it's kind when used as an adverb you do so to indicate that the adjective it precedes is to the highest degree possible

In your example experienced is the past tense of the verb to May 29 2023 So it is the best ever means it is the best of all time up to the present

It was the best ever means either it was the best up to that point in time and a better one may have happened since then or it includes up to the present Oct 20 2016 Both sentences could mean the same thing however I like you best

This is the best song ever that I've heard. Which of them is correct? How should we combine best ever and a noun in gen Jan 18 2017 The second sentence as you said contains a superlative best.
