Jul 20 2006 For some time now I ve been thinking of swapping in a V 8 engine in place of my 4.0L power plant

What is the most desirable and most straight foward engine to swap in? I ve seen several posts for the Chevy LT1 engines but is this really the best deal? The initial purchase price seems rather Jan 26 2025 We are setting up our recently purchased 2000TJWrangler Sport with a 4.0 and 5 speed manual transmission for flat towing behind our RV

The Owners Manual says to set the ignition in the tow position shift the transfer case into neutral and lastly shift the manual transmission into gear

Stock YJ single diaphragm booster OK let s look at why theTJis different that the YJ. First off we can see that the rod that connects to the brake pedal is much longer on the YJ booster

You can also see that theTJbooster is much thicker Aug 22 2008 Love this site! I am new to the site and have a 97TJ. Just bought 4 BFG A T 31x10.50. They are on stock 15x7 steel rims with 5.5 back space

Would like to know if I bought another one for a spare would it fit on the stock spare tire carrier without any modifications? Jun 12 2020 I just received my package from RocAuto with my new Tie Rod Drag Link and all new ends

Based on write ups in this forum I ordered the ZJ Tie Rod since it s beefier and
