Sep 12 2017 However after doing more research weve learned that in British slang tosscan mean something other than just throwing something see Urban Dictionary if you didnt know

So myquestion is How popular is this slang usage in British English? Would it be overly inappropriate for the domain to be InfoToss? Or would it be just a little edgy? Nov 8 2015 10Tosshas a more casual lighter connotation than throw which is a more powerful and deliberate action

One tosses a towel to one s club mate in the dressing room but out on the field of play one throws the ball hard in from the boundary.Tossto me always suggests an underarm movement whilst throw involves the full overarm action However Tossout is a bit wordy for casual conversation

You can simply say toss. In that context others should understand you intend to dispose of the item

The word pitch tends to put an emphasis on the emotional component of the act of disposing of the item.Tossis used when you simply wish to be rid of the item Nov 18 2015 Thetossin cricket is actually used to refer to an element of unpredictability the idea of somethng out of your control Thetossis a tribute to the element of luck that is at the base of cricket

Even those who are in control of their destiny the great batsman the successful bowler know the role of chance in their performance Apr 13 2021 A tossedsalad is asaladwhere you mix the ingredients by sort of tossing them in the air Nov 26 2025 Bentley Shall we toss some balls? Godby If you toss balls to me I will toss the cup in your face

Or as originally spelled Bentley hall wee toe ome balls Godby if yo u toe balls to mee I will toe the Cup in yo r face What does this mean? Is Williams reference to tossing balls an insult? A threat? Jul 17 2011 Throw andtossare interchangeable in the idiom

It is very popular and usually invokes imagery of dogs thus the watchdog pun in the NYT article. In this particular case the author wishes to compare the situations of the Watchdog and Wall Street

Even though both are in dire times one is being fed and the other starved In the British use of don t give atoss toss is a euphemism for masturbation which indirectly infers the F bomb

Americans don t draw a connection between toss or tossing and anything even remotely sexual but typically will use the F bomb in the same construction Feb 13 2017 I am still a bit confused about the phrase braintossand why he would
