Jul 1 2023 A male reader thesj + writes 11 July 2014 Virgin is a term with no real medical bearing. If you re concerned whether you are physically avirgin there is really no such thing

It is very possible for a woman to have sex for the first time without any damage to the hymen and sometimes when a hymen is broken it can heal and break all over again

If you re looking for a more mental The reason I could simply not ask her is because she already said she was avirgin before marriage and any further investigations would only embarrass her. Thanks for all your honest answers

I ve been struggling with this for many years and these habits have really put a damper on my life

I was wondering how you were doing with your addiction and what progress you have made Of course one solution is to show him what sex with you is like although if doing so compromises your personal standards such a demonstration may be disappointing to BOTH of you! My wife and I successfully used non coital activities necking petting etc after we were engaged Question 21 November 2010 10 Answers Newest 25 November 2010 A female age 30 35 anonymous writes Hey is it possible too loose your virginity but have sex another 2 or 3 times in the same night? Its what my partner wants just want to know if it s safe thanks x If a girl dry humps a male virgin does it mean she has taken his virginity? I m nervous on asking about this on here A 22 year old virgin seeks advice on navigating relationships and overcoming challenges in intimacy Do not worry you did not lose your virginity. Only through penetration can you lose it

Yet i don t see you staying avirgin until marriage if you are already having dry sex at 13. I have no problem with you doing it at that age at all nothing problematic like pregnancy can come out of it

[xx] As others have said however if a guy is looking for a conquest avirgin is better because even if sex isn t very good very few virgins are good at sex you get the honour of being the first one Jan 12 2011 How far should a 14 year old go sexually? relationship advice.
