[=someonewantsto speak to you on the phone] Wantsare often distinguished from needs. A need is something that is necessary for survival such as food and shelter whereas a want is simply something that a person would like to have [1] Some economists have rejected this distinction and maintain that all of these are simplywants with varying levels of importance Apr 6 2024 Wants is the third person singular form of the verb want used when the subject of the sentence is a person or thing that is not being spoken to directly

For example Shewantsa new car or The dogwantsto go for a walk Dec 16 2024 Usewantsonly when the subject is he she or it. For example Shewantsa new book but Theywantnew books

This distinction is crucial because it helps ensure that your verb agrees with its subject in number and person making your sentences grammatically correct and easier to understand Towantis to feel a need or a desire for something. How
